DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 1-4, 6, 16, 19, 22-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over 6800621, alone or in view of WO 94/29321.

See ex 1, ex 2 (note 13a, 13b), example 3 (note 19b), example 4 (note 35a, 35b), example 5 (see 37a, 37b), example 6-7 and others. These have R3=H, R2=H, alkyl, cyclic alkyl, amino-alkyl, etc. These differ only in that these have alkyl (or haloalkyl) for R2, whereas applicants have carboxy-alkyl. Carboxy however is taught as a substituent on alkyl; see definition of R2 in claim 1. Hence, such a variation is obvious; the reference teaches such a group as alternatively useable.

Further, WO 94/29321 teaches this explicitly as well. The compounds there are virtually identical. The variable there, called R1, can be alkyl or carboxy-alkyl. Note for example that example 6 has the alkyl, and example 8 has the corresponding carboxy-alkyl of the same compound.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-8, 11-15, 19-20, 22-24 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

1. The term "cyclic amino" is ambiguous. It may mean a cycle attached to an amino N, e.g. anilino, or it may mean that the N is itself in a cycle, E.g. piperidinyl.
2. If the latter is intended, what sort of cycle is this to be? Can there be other heteroatoms in the ring? Can the ring be fused or bridged?
3. The import of the first parenthetical material in claim 4 is unclear. Does this in any way limit the claim? If not, what is it does there? Likewise claim 7, etc.
4. The intent of claim 23 is not clear. How does it in any way limit claim 22? If it does not, it is improperly dependent on claim 22.

Claim Objections

Claims 9-10, 17-18, and 21 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
